WEAVER TALKS.

General Weaver was interviewed in Sacramento, on Friday, by a Bee reporter. He said with great earnestness that three out of four votes in Colorado will be cast for the People's Party, and that in Nevada, too, it is all one way, old party lines having been completely obliterated.

"We will go into the South with great strength," said the General. "The South is emancipated now. The Republicans could never in the world carry a State there, but now the South is going to vote its convictions and not its prejudice."

Look at the Alabama election. We carried the majority of the Legislature and the white counties. Jones claims only 10,000 majority, and this was obtained in the black districts. Negro domination, you see, is the great bug-bear of the Democratic party. Now they have invoked it and it no longer exists as an argument for them. We are certain to carry Alabama.

"There is simply going to be a general breaking up as there was in 1858-60. The contest is not between Cleveland and Harrison at all. Harrison cannot possibly be elected. He must rely upon the Northern States, and Cleveland will take some of them from him in the East, just as I will in the West. Now, where is he going to get his votes. Surely not in the South. The Republicans will have to begin to see the truth before long, for it is plain and cannot be avoided."

The World's Fair at Chicago will be followed in 1896 by a world's fair in Berlin. In 1898 there will be a world's fair in Vienna, and in 1900 France will take another whirl at the fair business. Thus four immense exhibitions are to be given on this tiny planet in the space of less than ten years. Paris has a little the best of the showing, having had a fair but four years ago, and appearing as an exhibitor again at the last and the highest point in the century.

Stevenson, the candidate for Vice-President on the Democratic ticket, ought not to make any speeches. He is the kind of man that ought to remain at home, smile upon everyone who come to see him, and not give himself away by making speeches.

Weaver will make the speeches for the people and the old broken figure heads of both parties can't stop the influx of solid votes from the freemen.

The San Francisco Music & Drama in a short biographical sketch of Richard Jose the singer, forgets to mention the fact that he is from Nevada. No man ever attained success from this State but what someone tried to prove that he came from California or the East.

The Ogden Standard of the 6th devotes two pages to the "Hidden Treasures" around her and the description is one of the best ever published on the Coast. Such journalistic enterprise is a boom to any section and should be encouraged.

What difference would it make to the people of the West whether Harrison or Cleveland reaches the Presidential chair? Did their respective administrations ever do any good for the Western people? No.

The Pestilence Spreading.

The Plagues along the C. & C. railroad, who prefer lounging around the towns, to stepping on the reservation, are becoming opium fiends. Many of them including young bucks and squaws, not yet sixteen years old, have been seen smoking the deadly drug, in China opium dens.
